

Name:

Unit 3 – LAC

Person Specification

	Essential	Desirable	Source of Information
Experience	3 years worth of experience	Volunteering experience in a health care setting	Nationalcareers.service.gov.uk
Qualification	Complete a degree in physiotherapy from a recognised institution	A relevant undergraduate degree in physiotherapy and a strong science gcse	NHS careers
Skills	Being able to solve analyse and have a solid understanding of anatomy and physiology	Strong communication time management and empathy	Indeed
Qualities	Strong interpersonal skills good Communication both written and verbal and being able to adapt in all situations	A good understanding of anatomy and physiology and also communication	indeed

The Physiotherapist is responsible for the assessment, diagnosis, treatment, and rehabilitation of patients with musculoskeletal, neurological, and other physical conditions. The role involves creating individualized treatment plans to help patients restore mobility, improve physical function, and manage pain.